No Blame Fixed at Inquest of Late Traffic Officer

TO REMOVE UNSIGHTLY POLES

Young Bank Teller Receives Full Limit of The Law

AVENUE IS TO BE TURNED IN TO WHITE WAY BY NEW LIGHTS

Within the next nine months Macdonald avenue will be a "great White Way."

The work of removing all the unsightly poles from the main business district of the city is to be started this week, preparatory to the installation of the steel columns that will hold the electrolights that will line the avenue from First street to Twenty-third.

The initial work will be commenced by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company by the removing of the poles from the corners where the steel ones are to go. Then the work of erecting the latter will be started by the street car company, and after this is done, the Western States Gas and Electric Company is to place in position the brackets that will hold the illuminating globes.

The present street lights will be done away with, and there will be about three electrolights to each block.

ACCIDENTAL IS JURY VERDICT AT HEARING BY THE CORONER

The coroner's jury, impaneled in the case of A. J. Lambert, county traffic officer who met his death at Stege Junction on Sunday, August 14, while in pursuit of his duties, fixed no blame for the fatal accident. The inquest was held last evening by Coroner C. F. Donnelly.

The verdict was to the effect that the death of Lambert was "due to fracture of the neck, caused by the motorcycle on which he was riding colliding with the rear of a truck. We further find that the death was accidental and no responsibility attached."

The testimony of John S. Dages, driver of the car which was following immediately behind the motor truck with which Lambert collided, tended to show that Lambert did not die instantly after striking the truck. He testified that he helped to take Lambert to the Craven hospital, and said that Lambert moved at least twice after the accident occurred.

The second time Lambert moved, Dages testified, was while he was in the hospital and they were waiting for a doctor to arrive. He stated as his opinion that Lambert died at this time, which was just before Drs. Abbott and Cunningham reached the hospital.

Other testimony in the case, which was substantially the same from all witnesses who testified to this particular phase of the accident, was that Lambert was not run over by

BAY POINT VICTIM IS DEAD PAPPAS CHARGED WITH MURDER

John Osborne of Bay Point, who was shot in a pool room fight at that place last Tuesday night, died yesterday morning at the hospital in Martinez. Jack Pappas was formally charged with murder shortly afterward, appearing before Justice of the Peace F. L. Glass. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff without bail.

Pappas had been previously arrested in connection with the case and charged with intent to commit murder. According to the story he told District Attorney A. B. Tinning, Osborne came into the pool room under the influence of liquor and became abusive. An argument between the two men started and in the course of it, Pappas claims, Osborne reached back as if he was going to draw a gun. Pappas then fired four shots at him, the last entering the lungs just below the heart.

At one time it was believed that Osborne would recover, but a relapse set in which resulted in his death yesterday. An operation had been performed and everything possible done to save him.

Carey Protests Against the Erection of Shack Garages

The building of shack garages in all sections of the city, thereby increasing the fire hazards, was brought to the attention of the council last evening by Councilman M. H. Carey. He thought the building ordinance should be so changed that a stop could be put to it. Carey states that no good came from the erection of such structures, and business was taken from men in the garage business who had spent thousands of dollars in erecting fire proof buildings.

A. B. Minter of the Twenty-second Street garage, addressed the council, emphasizing the statements that had been made by Councilman Carey. It was Minter's opinion that when a person erected a garage to rent out, they were doing a public business and should be under the general regulations affecting the conduct of such business.

The matter was finally referred to the building committee, the building inspector and the city manager for recommendations.

Labor Works to Settle Tie-up In Building

As a result of the labor mass meeting held in Oakland Sunday at the civic auditorium, the labor leaders will make an effort to have the mayors and councilmen of the cities of San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, and Richmond meet within the next two weeks to see if something cannot be done to end the present building tie-up.

It is stated that there are 40,000 idle men in the bay district, and if the present difficulty can be adjusted 90 per cent of them can be put to work at once.

OPPOSITION BRADSHAW IS DEVELOPES TO SENTENCED TO STAGES USING 1 TO 14 YEAR CO. HIGHWAYS TERM IN S.O.

The agitation in all parts of the county against the taxpayers building concrete highways and then their being turned over to the use of stage lines without paying any compensation, is on the increase.

Yesterday at the meeting of the supervisors a largely signed petition from residents of the eastern end was presented, which asked the board not to grant any further permits to stage lines.

The application of the Western Motor company for permission to operate a stage line over the Franklin Canyon highway, which has just been completed, was to have come up for hearing before the railroad commissioners Thursday, but it has been postponed to September 15th. The county authorities, through District Attorney A. B. Tinning, are opposing the application.

After denying the application of Lester J. Bradshaw for probation, superior Judge R. H. Lattimer yesterday sentenced him to an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years, to be served at San Quentin.

Bradshaw will be taken to the state prison this morning, and in the future will be known by number.

The theft of $10,000 from the savings account of a depositor at a local bank by means of forged withdrawal receipt, his marriage, his flight to Australia, efforts to prevent extradition, and his being brought back to this country to face trial, are details that are all fresh in the minds of the reading public.

NEW STREET LIGHT ORDERED BY COUNCIL

On the recommendation of the light committee, the council last night ordered that an electric light be placed at the corner of Thirtieth and Cerro avenues.

Itinerant Fakirs Forbidden by New Ordinance Passed

Final reading and passage was given what is known as the "traffic ordinance" at the meeting of the council last night.

The object of the ordinance is to regulate the conduct of peddlers and itinerants in the city. Under the new law it will be unlawful for persons to sell goods, wares and merchandise in the City of Richmond, unless they have a fixed place of business.

Peddlers will be allowed to operate, but they will not be permitted to stand on the streets all day long.

Pinole Man is Lodged in Jail for Burglary

James Remsler was taken to the county jail at Martinez yesterday by Constable McDonald of Pinole on a charge of burglary as a result of the alleged theft of property from the A. P. Fernandez restaurant and soft drink parlor in Rodeo at midnight Sunday.

McDonald states that a box containing over $500 in bonds was stolen. Remsler denies the charge. He is an employee of an oil steamer.

"BOOSTER SUNDAY" IS PLANNED 20TH CENTURY CLUB OFFICERS

Officers were elected and plans made for a "Booster Sunday" at the regular monthly meeting and social of the Twentieth Century club, held in the parlors of the First Christian church last evening.

Officers chosen at the semi-annual election were: President, John Curran; vice-president, Edna Lohrer; secretary-treasurer, Florence Clark. The following chairmen of various standing committees were chosen: Membership committee, Irene Lohrer; devotional committee, Harry Wilkerson; social committee, Valerie Curran.

Archie Iveagh was chosen as chairman of the Booster Sunday committee. This event will take place the first Sunday in September. Members will bring their parents and friends to the big rally of the class. After the business of the meeting was over, a social evening was enjoyed. Waffles and rolls and coffee were served.

The lively spirit of the class has caused it to grow until it is the second largest of its kind in Northern California. V. D. Brammer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was taken into the membership of the class last evening.

OFFICIAL PAPER CITY OF RICHMOND

THINKOGRAPHS by F. J. HULANISKI

BEST COUNTRY ON EARTH

"Constant Reader" sends in a long communication upon many different subjects, but as the same is unsigned it reposes in the customary receptacle. Its general trend, however, may be obtained from the fact that he contends that the Soviet government of Russia to have the best principles of any, and ought to be recognized by this government.

The theories of the Soviet are as unsound and unripe as a green gourd. This man is evidently of Socialistic leaning, and when a man gets that bug in his bonnet he is hopeless, and never recovers or gets good common sense again. The writer jumps on to our government continually and has not a word of commendation for it. This is a mistake. We jump the politicians and lawmakers quite frequently, also, when they make errors, and talk plainly about it, but realize, just the same, that the United States of America is the greatest and best country on earth, barring none, and our form of government is also the best. We have rascals in high office, who conspire to sell out the people, and do those things which they should not do, yes, but everywhere in Europe are more rascals of that kind and character, and the peoples of other countries are robbed ten times worse than we are here. We have more real freedom than any other country. There are a number of European countries where if we printed our editorials we would land in jail in less than no time, and where there is neither freedom of press, pen or speech. If a man is industrious, reasonably frugal, attends to his own business and works faithfully, leading a sane and sensible life and applying the Golden Rule as best he can, he will not only get along all right in this country, but he will get well off in worldly goods and have a home and something laid by for old age. If he has not all that, it is his own fault, and not the fault of the country or the government.

If this government has power to conscript men by the millions, it also has power to conscript the billions of unearned money in the vaults of many of the rich, and it ought to do it before it calls upon we poor wops with darned socks and frayed shirt cuffs.

A bill is before Congress, backed by the Administration, to loan money to farmers for the purpose of allowing them to hold their products for higher prices. That is pernicious for the reason that it would be hoarding food with the aid of the government. It is just as reprehensible for a farmer to hoard food as for the middleman to do so. Surely, the farmer can be helped in some legitimate way.

Since declaring the election of Newberry to the Senate all right, that body ought to hang out a sign, advertising seats to the highest bidder. There are dozens of others in the Senate, besides Newberry, who got there by the same methods.

Senator France suggests a loan of two billion dollars to Russia. Senator France is of Maryland and that state ought to fit up a nice, comfortable cell for him.

Pussyfoot Johnson is en route to India to tell them, he says, what we have done in the United States. We trust he will not tell them all we have done.

Texas has a cane-growers' association. All other states have a lot of fellows who raise cane but are not particularly banded together in the process.

No community or nation can truly prosper unless its workers likewise prosper. A poor many and a rich few is by no means ideal.

When Father was a boy he kicked up his heels and whinnied like a horse, but today's boy runs around like a car and honks.

Americans do fairly well, considering that they eat pie and cheese together.

There is only one way to fight any of trouble from vamps and affinities, and that is to let them strictly alone. All affinities are vamps, as far as that is concerned, and all are crazy, loose-moraled and totally unreliable. One of them is under arrest in San Francisco for being the affinity of a man under indictment of murder, and the Denver papers are telling of how she shook four or five other bad actors there just as soon as the prison bars closed behind them. Sure! Once the supply of money stops and the affinity business cozes out. Never knew it to fail. Alas, any man keeping up an affinity need have no surprise whatever at any time to find out that she also has another sucker or two on the string. Never knew it to fail, either, and we have run into a lot of 'em during our career chasing the fleeting news item as it flits from flower to flower and from vamp to affinity. This particular affinity declared she would be true to each one of the half dozen pestiferous fools who got pinched for rustling money for her in illegitimate ways, and had a new one next day—or probably that same night, for suckers grow as luxuriantly as thistles. A vamp or affinity has no more conscience than morals and no more honor or honesty than a skunk, and not half as much, for it is possible that the polecat is not a bad person, aside from his brand of eau de cologne. Of course, it must not be said that when a woman, under certain circumstances, falls from moral grace, that she yields up with her virtue every other good quality with which we endow her sex, but when she gets to be a professional at it, that is different. The professional harlot is the lowest thing on earth, and the vamp and affinity are close seconds.

The women have put their feet down flat against the return of the bustle, as suggested by fashion-makers some time ago. That is good. The bustle was relegated to the rear many years ago—or that was not the way we intended to express it, as of course it was always in the rear, but anyhow we should object hard to it coming to the front again, even in the rear. The best bustle a woman can build is made of plenty of beef and cabbage, corn bread, greens and potatoes, taters, sowdely and hoe cake. That beats the wire and cotton brand a mile.

The tariff bill framed by the congressional majority will be strenuously fought by the Democrats, who claim that it relieves profiteers and taxpayers of large incomes from their just share of the load of taxation and leaves an unfair portion of the burden to be borne by the people of moderate means. Well, that's the way it always is, ain't it?

And now a bill has been introduced to make Hawaii dry. Let them determine that themselves, while we get busy and prohibit the importation of the hula-hula dance and the diabolical ukelele nuisance.

A glaring headline reads that "Science Bans Powder Puff as Menace to Health." Uh huh—(yawn here). Science should ban something or other that it has a ghost of a show of putting over.

A brave man not alone by fire
Or conflict meets the test
He must forego his own desire,
To stand for what is best.

The Senate majority confirms Senator Newberry's title to his seat. Sure! It's his—he bought it and paid for it.

There is a difference between determination and stubbornness which some of the ratheads fail to consider.

The one-cent stamp carries much stuff a long way, in view of the fact that its destination is the waste basket.

Sympathy has to have financial backing if it is to be much benefit to the poor and needy.

Swimming Ability

Shown in Film by Mabel Normand

Mabel Normand, that bewitching youngster of the films, who comes to the Richmond T. & D. Theatre today in "What Happened to Rosa," has lost none of her swimming ability since her old days. She was at one time a champion swimmer, and it is hardly to be doubted but that she could come out winner if she had to race today.

In this Goldwyn picture, the petite young comedienne has to dive from a ship, swim ashore, and climb up onto the pier—all for Love! This is rather an exciting way in which to assure oneself of a lover, but as Mayme Ladd, the poor department store girl, she has to do something strenuous in order to win the young doctor she loves.

That was her only alternative, so she did it, and you will see just how well Mabel Normand does it in this story. Imagine diving from the bridge of a vessel! That alone is exciting, but when she makes the swim to shore, and then lifts herself up, hand ver hand, to the top of the wharf—well, you marvel at this slip of a girl, that's all.

A Peerless comedy and a scenic reel complete the bill. Don't miss seeing Lionel Barrymore in "The Great Adventurer" tomorrow.

Rodeo Ferry Co.

Will Construct New Steamer

A new ferry boat, with Diesel engine, that will do away with smokestacks and upper deck machinery, is to be constructed by the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company. It was announced yesterday by O. H. Klatt, an official of the company. The new craft is to cost in the neighborhood of $800,000 and bids will be asked in September.

The boat will be constructed along the same lines as the company's steamer Avon J. Hanford, recently placed in operation. While the Hanford has a carrying capacity of sixty automobiles, the new boat will carry 100, because of the design.

Picnic at Grounds

Rod and Gun Club Draws Big Crowd

A picnic at the Standard Oil Rod and Gun Club grounds was enjoyed Sunday by the mechanical and engineering departments of the Standard plant. Employees of the two departments, with their wives and families took part in the aquatic sports, shooting events and other games provided. A big spread brought by the picnicers contributed the chief aim of a picnic at noon.

The picnic was one of a series being given each month by the different departments of the plant. The employees of the asphalt plant and their families will picnic next month, and the main office employees the following month.

The development of Motor Transportation

There have been many contributing factors in the development of motor transportation; the perfecting of the motor car in comfort and dependability; the construction of smooth durable highways; the production of a motor fuel—Red Crown gasoline—which meets every test of power and mileage; and finally, the Standard Oil Service Stations at convenient locations, making Red Crown gasoline readily available to motorists.

Grand Council of Y. L. I. to Convene in Oakland Today

The convening of the grand council this morning and the grand council ball this evening at the Hotel Oakland are the outstanding features of today's program of the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Y. M. I. now in progress at Oakland. Burke Council, Y. M. I., and Richmond Institute, Y. L. I., are represented at the convention.

The Richmond delegation had a prominent position in the great parade opening the convention on Sunday. The parade was said to have been one of the largest and most elaborate in the history of Oakland. The Richmond delegation is in charge of a committee including P. F. Galligan, James Housnel, Dennis Sullivan, Dan Murphy, Andre Ahern, Henry Bill, John Craig, William Driscoll, Michael Bradley and M. Matern.

Postmaster J. N. Long will act as chairman of the weekly luncheon of the Richmond Den of Lions at the Richmond Club house today. Several interesting features have been planned for the meeting.

RAIL RELIEF BILL UP FOR PASSAGE IN HOUSE

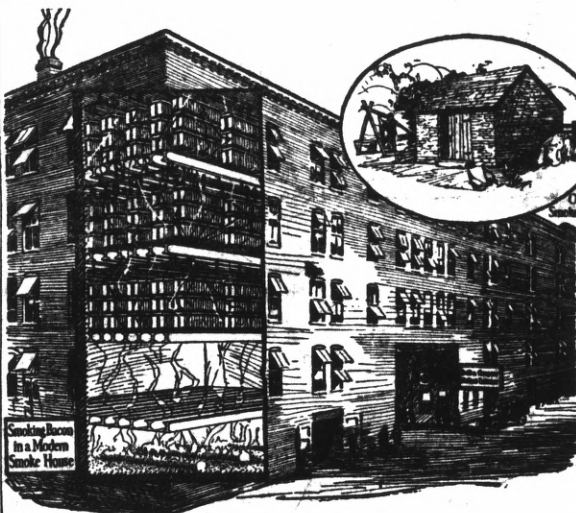

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The administration railroad relief bill was taken up in the House today. This bill authorizes the War Finance Corporation to purchase from the railroad administration not in excess of $500,000 railroad securities in payment of debts due the government. The money so paid the railroad administration will be used by it in paying allowed claims of the railroads against the government.

BOARD TO SELL 205 SHIPS AT $2100 EACH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Shipping Board was in a fair way of getting rid of the major portion of its "white elephants"—the war time constructed wooden ships.

Official announcement by the board contained the information that bids submitted by the Ship Construction and Trading Corporation of New York of $2100 each for the 205 of the 285 wooden craft had been accepted.

Vice Chairman O'Connor of the board, commenting today on the sale, said the price was exceedingly low in view of the cost of the 285 vessels recently estimated by Chairman Lasker at $230,000,000.

In Earlier Days

In former times, when the town butcher or farmer himself dressed and cured the meat for the community, he could not always tell how it would turn out.

His methods were crude; partly traditional, partly guesswork. His tests were few and inconclusive.

Meat packing of today, as carried on by Swift & Company, has changed all that. It is scientific. Nothing is left to chance; nothing taken for granted.

The most painstaking care and attention are given to every step. Processes are worked out on a large scale with minute exactness. Methods are continually revised and improved. Cleanliness is insisted upon. Drastic, incessant inspections are the order of the day.

Swift products are uniform, graded according to quality.

Take bacon, for instance.

Swift & Company set out years ago to make a delicious, savory bacon which should be uniformly excellent.

The result is Swift's Premium Bacon, always the same, always famously good. Today this bacon, wrapped, sealed and branded, has circled the world.

Swift & Company's system of distribution carries it to places which the "town butcher" or the farmer could not reach.

Heavy Meat Eaters Have Slow Kidneys

Eat less meat if you feel Back-ache or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish, and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get rheumatism, sleeplessness and urinary troubles come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull pain in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer causes irritation; thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Samson and Sarah Taylor, with their two children, Josiah and Betsy, travel by wagon from their home in Vergennes, Vt., to the West, the land of plenty. Their destination is the Country of the Sangamon, in Illinois.

CHAPTER II.—At Niagara Falls they meet a party of immigrants, among them a youth named John McNeil, who also decides to go to the Sangamon country. All of the party suffer from fever and ague. Sarah's ministrations save the life of a youth, Harry Needles, in the stages of fever, and he accompanies the Taylors. They reach New Salem, Illinois, and are welcomed by young "Abe" Lincoln.

CHAPTER III.—Among the Taylors' first acquaintances are Lincoln's friends, Jack Kelso and his pretty daughter Bim, 15 years of age.

CHAPTER IV.—Samson decides to locate at New Salem, and begins building his house. Led by Jack Armstrong, Harry Needles strikes up acquaintance with the Armstrongs, and McNeil threatens vengeance.

CHAPTER V.—A few days later Harry, alone, is attacked by McNeil and his gang. Not Bim driven off his mind roughly used a shotgun, John McNeil, the Taylors' Niagara Falls acquaintance, is markedly attentive to Ann Rutledge. Lincoln is in courage to tell her so.

CHAPTER VI.—Taylor helps two slaves, who had run away from St. Louis, to escape. Eliphaz Biggs, owner of the slaves, attempts to shoot Taylor and in a fight has his arm broken.

CHAPTER VII.—Waiting for his arm to heal, Biggs meets Bim Kelso, with whom Harry Needles has fallen in love. Biggs asks for Bim's hand, but her father refuses his consent. Biggs returns to St. Louis.

CHAPTER VIII.—Bim confesses to Harry that she loves Biggs. Lincoln, disconsolate, decides to seek a seat in the legislature. He and Harry volunteer for the Black Hawk war, and leave New Salem.

CHAPTER IX.—Biggs comes back to the village and he and Bim elope. Harry is disappointed. Lincoln, however, is "war." Lincoln's advice and philosophy sustain him in his grief.

CHAPTER X.—Lincoln, defeated in his candidacy for the legislature, forms a partnership with John McNeil. Berry in the grocery business. Biggs sends a gang to burn Taylor's house, but the New Salem men are warned and the raiders worsted.

CHAPTER XI.—Lincoln, now postmaster, decides to run again for the legislature. Ann Rutledge is openly in love with John McNeil. He leaves for his home in the East, promising to return soon and marry Ann. Lincoln accepts his defeat manfully. No word coming from McNeil, Ann confesses to Abe that his real name is Melamar, and fears that he will not return. Lincoln in his deep love endeavors to reassure her, though he shares her misgivings. Lincoln wins his seat in the legislature.

CHAPTER XII.—Ann hears from Melamar, but his letter is cold and she is convinced he does not love her. She tells him of her doubts, and he confesses his love and asks her to marry him. Ann declares she does not love him, but will try to. With that promise Lincoln sets out for Vandalla and his legislative duties.

CHAPTER XIII.—Taylor and Harry Needles visit the "boom" city of Chicago, where Bim, now the mother of a family, is living with her parents. She has her divorce. Harry is a speculator in the war. An unscrupulous, rich speculator, Daniel Davis, desires to marry Bim, but she repulses him.

CHAPTER XIV.—Ruined by the panic of '73, Kelso dies and Bim and her mother are left penniless. He repudiates his suit, and, made desperate by the news of Harry's death, Bim almost makes up her mind to marry him.

CHAPTER XV.—Lincoln is admitted to the bar. Taylor ascertains that the report of Harry's death is false. He hurries to Chicago. Davis has swindled Bim, instead, a friend of Taylor's, in real estate deal. Smugglers break out at Honey Creek, and Bim goes there as a nurse.

CHAPTER XVI.—Lincoln at Springfield enters into his life work. Harry Needles comes home and at once seeks Bim.

CHAPTER XVII.—Lincoln wins Bim, instead of the speculator. As an out-come, Harry, resenting the loss of Taylor, fights a duel with Davis, in which both are wounded.

One evening, while E. D. Baker was speaking in the crowded village courtroom above Lincoln's office and was rudely interrupted and in danger of assault, the long legs of Honest Abe suddenly appeared through a scuttle hole in the ceiling above the platform. He leaped upon it and seizing a stone water pitcher defied any one to interfere with the right of free speech in a worthy cause.

So it will be seen that there were zealous moments in these sundry vindications of the principles of Democracy in the prairie capital.

About this time Miss Mary Todd, the daughter of a Kentucky banker, arrived in Springfield to visit her sister, Mrs. Ninian W. Edwards. She was a fashionably dressed, good-looking girl of blue-gray eyes and dark hair.

"Well, Mary, haven't you found the fortunate young man yet?" Mr. Edwards playfully asked the day of her coming.

"You know, my husband is going to be President of the United States and I hoped that I would find him in Springfield," Mary answered in a like vein.

"There's great fishing here," said Mr. Edwards. "I know the very spot you are looking for. He has come up from the ranks and is now the most popular member of the legislature. He can make a stirring speech and they say he is going to be the President of the United States. He's wise and witty and straight as a string, but a rough diamond—big, awkward and homesy. You're just the girl to take him in hand and give him a little polish and push him along. His name is Abraham Lincoln." Speed knew the Todds. When he called upon Mary she asked about Mr. Lincoln and said she would like to meet him.

"She's just the girl for you, Abe," Speed said to him that evening. "She is bright and well educated and her family has influence. She could be a great help to you."

This interested the member from Sangamon county, who was indeed eager to get along. The companionship of a refined young lady was the very thing he needed.

"Let's go over and pay our respects to her," Speed suggested. They went, Lincoln being carefully dressed in his first suit of black clothes. Miss Todd was a bright, vivacious girl of middle stature, twenty-two years old. She was fashionably dressed and carried her head proudly—a smart-looking, witty, well spoken girl, but not especially handsome. Honest Abe was deeply impressed by her talk and fine manners and general comeliness. He felt her grace and charm and spoke of it with enthusiasm. But to him and to her there seemed to be an impassable gulf between them. She changed her mind about that; however, when she heard him speak and felt the power of his personality and saw his face lighted by the candle of his spirit. It was a handsome face in those moments of high elation. Hardship and malarial poison had lined and shadowed his skin. The shadows of loneliness and sorrow were in its sculpturing. But when his eyes glowed with passion one saw not the rough mask which the life of the pioneer had given him. His form lost its awkwardness; his face took on a noble and impressive beauty. To quote his own words to the boy, Josiah Taylor, his character was speaking as well as his lips. Mary had the insight to recognize his power. She felt the strength of his spirit. She agreed with her friends that here was a man of great promise. She felt the need of him.

To one who loved beauty and respected women as he did, the grace and refinement of this young lady had a singular appeal, coupled, as it was, with the urge of his strong, masculine nature. It was a revelation. He was like a young poet going out into the open and seeing for the first time the mysterious beauty of the mountains or "the exquisite, delicate, thin curve of the new moon in spring." He began to seek and study refinement of thought, of manner, of dress, of expression. He knew that he needed Mary, but had the feeling that she was not for him.

A woman who lived near the Edwards' house had a small, hairy poodle dog. One day, as Abe and Mary were walking along the street, they met this woman, who asked if they had seen her dog.

"I wouldn't wonder if some one down the street had got him tied to the end of a pole and is using him to swab off his windows," said Abe Lincoln with a good-natured laugh. "I'll try to find him for you."

Mary enjoyed fun and this and like sallies of the young legislator added a certain zest to their friendship. Women are like children in their love of humor.

The diminutive Douglas saw in Miss Todd an asset of much value and his attentions began to be assiduous. Mary was indifferent to his lofty manner and sonorous vocabulary. Abe Lincoln liked her better for that.

She encouraged the visits of the latter and lavished his confidence. The fact filled him with a great joy. They went about together. In the Edwards parlor he modestly told her of his work and his life plan.

FRANKLIN HIGHWAY IS

FORMALLY DEDICATED

The dedication ceremonies for the formal opening of the Franklin canyon highway which took place yesterday at Martinez, was largely attended. There were about 3000 people present. The ceremonies consisted in removing the barrier of flowers that had been strung across the road, and the breaking of a bottle of champagne by Miss Margaret "Ninning."

Afterwards there was an appropriate program in the city hall park at Martinez. Many people from Richmond took in the event.

Ladies! Look Young, Darken Gray Hair

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

The meat business of Mr. Ludwig has increased to such an extent in the past few years that he found that it could be handled to better advantage in the shape of a corporation and has taken in with him two others as his associates.

The Home-Staying Dollar

Is the dollar that counts in the long run. It's the dollar that eventually "comes back." If Jones buys a suit of clothes from Smith and Smith buys a pair of shoes from Jones: the dollars involved in the transaction stay in Richmond and both Jones and Smith make a profit.

If, however, Jones buys his suit in some other town and Smith goes elsewhere to buy his shoes, both Jones and Smith lose a profit and the money each spends may never come back to Richmond.

Too many Richmond people buy suits and shoes—and many other necessities—in other cities. Richmond is a prosperous community to be sure, but not nearly so prosperous as it would be if we all remembered that the home-staying dollar,

HIGHWAY CONDITION AT CROCKETT FORCES SUGAR COMPANY TO ACT

Work will have started tomorrow on the construction of the suspension bridge over the slide on the Hanna Hill west of Valona by the State Highway Commission. The road will be closed for four days, it was announced, and by that time the commission expects to have the bridge finished.

The road west of Valona has been almost impassable for the past several months as a result of the slide and in an effort to keep the route open through the winter, the Highway Commission will construct the bridge around the dangerous point.

Lumber and material are now on the ground for the work and a large crew of men will be put to work immediately on the construction of the bridge, which the highway engineers believe can be finished by the latter part of the week.

Next spring, it is understood, the commission plans to secure another route for the road, which will eliminate the serious slide.

It is the plan of the sugar company to construct a road from Crockett connecting with the Franklin Canyon highway in order that the town will always have a sure means of getting out, in case the State Highway that goes by Hanna Hill is entirely closed.

It is stated that the proposed highway would be four miles in length and would open up a large section of valuable land to settlement. The grades over the hills from Franklin Canyon to Crockett would not be in excess of six per cent, it is stated, and it is understood steps are to be taken by the Sugar corporation at once looking toward the construction of the road.

Grand Officers of Native Sons to Visit Local Parlor

A reception will be given Wednesday evening by Richmond Parlor of Native Sons for several grand officers who will visit here to launch a membership drive. Among those expected to be present will be Grand Trustee James A. Wilson, Grand Organizer James P. Cronin and several district deputy grand presidents. Visitors from other parlors in Alameda and Contra Costa counties are also expected.

The membership drive here will be conducted by Grand Organizer Wilson, and an effort will be made to bring every eligible person in Richmond to the organization.

Location of New Fire Hydrants Is Fixed by Council

Fire hydrants will be placed at Lassen and McBryde avenues and Esmond and San Pablo avenues, as the council last night decided that these locations would serve a greater population in the eastern section of the city than the first places asked for.

Two Districts Are Annexed to Richmond Hi

More territory has been added to the Richmond Union High school district. At the meeting of the supervisors yesterday Orinda Park district and Sheldon district were annexed to Richmond.

Teachers Will Hold Hold Annual Meet First Week in Oct.

The annual Contra Costa teachers' institute will not be held this year as a distinctly Contra Costa institute, but teachers of the county will attend the convention of the California Teachers' Association, to be held in Oakland the first week of October, is the announcement made by Superintendent of Schools William H. Hanlon. Decision to forego the annual institute was reached by Hanlon when the date of the convention of the state teachers' association was announced.

As a result of the convention, Hanlon declared, the time of registration of minors by teachers will have to be postponed one week. Registration of minors falls in the first week of October.

BANKRUPTCY PERIOD IN SOUTH REPORTED
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—The bankruptcy period has just started, property in the South is being sold for taxes and suicide and insanity will follow, John S. Wanamaker, president of the American Cotton Growers' Association, declared today before the joint congressional committee investigating agricultural conditions. Artificial deflation forced by the Federal Reserve Board is to blame for conditions which are sending the "country to destruction," Wanamaker charged.

MANY STREET MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON BY THE COUNCIL

A number of matters affecting street improvement came up at the meeting of the council last evening.

Bay View Avenue.
Regarding the improvement of Bay View avenue, some property owners protested, but the majority of them were in favor of the work proceeding. It is possible that the putting in of the sidewalks at the present time will be eliminated in order to reduce the cost of the work.

Fourth Street Protests.
A communication was received from H. H. Turley in which he stated that he had been checking up on the signatures to the protest against the improvement of Fourth street, and he had found that about two-thirds of them were outside of the proposed district. He suggested that the work houses would purchase the bonds houses would purchase the bonds more readily.

Garrard Boulevard.
Report of the acceptance of the work on Garrard boulevard by L. L. Poge was filed by City Engineer D. Chapman.

Second Street Work.

Mrs. Howard Thanks Friends for Their Support

Mrs. L. M. Howard, who finished in fifth place in the Record Herald contest which came to a spectacular close Saturday night, made the following statement when the $100.00 check which she won was handed to her this afternoon:

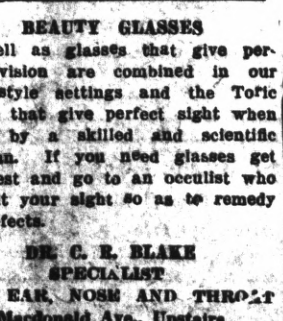

"Please say to my friends that I thank them for the assistance rendered me during the campaign and that their support was more than appreciated. The Record-Herald is a splendid paper, its columns the liveliest found in the county and is thoroughly appreciated by a host of readers. I canvassed the greater part of the city and can say that your paper covers the entire city and surrounding country most completely."

Legion Team Wins Game Sunday by Score of 18 to 9

One of the best baseball games of the season was the battle Sunday at the First Street grounds between the American Legion team of Richmond and the team from the U. S. Steamship Bath.

Up to the fourth inning it looked like the Legion boys were going to get a terrific drubbing, as the score stood 8 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

Then the ex-service men got themselves together and started in to knock out hits at a terrific rate. The result was that the Legion team won by a score of 18 to 9.

Policewoman Job Is Abolished by Act of Council

A resolution abolishing the position of policewoman was taken up at the meeting of the council last evening and adopted, all voting aye, with the exception of Mrs. Marie L. Ogborn, Councilmen Hartnett and Long were absent.

There was no discussion when the resolution was presented, the matter evidently having been discussed in the committee meeting and agreed upon.

CAVE MAN LOVER IS BEING HELD ON BAIL

Giuseppe Prestinari of Pullman, charged with using cave man tactics in forcing his attention on Mrs. Flossie Kalagass, also of Pullman, was unable yesterday to raise the $250 bail required for his freedom. Hence he still languishes in jail on a battery charge and will appear in court this morning for trial.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE Truthfully

We believe so. Some firms to-day are offering "hair-raising" specials; even below cost. Does it sound possible that they can do it? Can they sell below cost without a catch someplace? Its all to fool the public but it does not pay.

After all, it pays better to buy where you get A-1 Quality, A-1 Service, and everything at the lowest possible price. All these are found at
